Welcome

We welcome all visitors and members to the Norwalk Seventh-day Adventist Church. We feel honored to have you worshiping with us today. We trust and pray you will experience God's presence in a mighty way while you worship here with us. May you be so blessed and lifted by the ministry of music, prayer, scripture and the preached word that God's love and light will be renewed within your heart.

Bible Study Training Class – 2:00pm

Bible Study Training Class will continue next week Sabbath at 2:00pm in the Upper Room Fellowship Hall. There will be no Bible Study Class today.

Prayer Ministry

We invite you to enter your prayer requests in our prayer box during the morning prayer. We also engage in a morning prayer conference call at 4:00am each Sabbath morning. We invite all who wish to join. Prayer Conference Line: Phone # 978-990-5334 Access Code 274605#

Upcoming Evangelistic Meetings

We are preparing for a two-week revival evangelistic series during the first two weeks of December. (December 3-17) We trust God to move in a mighty way to bring about a community revival that will result in a harvest of souls. We want all of you to get involved and participate. Let us start now by praying as a church family for the souls God will bring to these meetings.

Thought for the Week

Christianity's not a theory taught by theological talks—it's Christ living in you!

Norwalk SDA Church Vision, Mission Statement & Values

At our Master Planning Session last Sabbath, we chose the following:

Vision Statement: Norwalk SDA Church will be a Christ-centered church that lovingly assists its community with felt needs.

Mission Statement: Norwalk SDA Church exists to share God’s love in the community through the gospel and by serving and edifying lives.

Values: Our primary core values are accountability, joy and nurture

We are still prayerfully reflecting on this, and we are open to any feedback and suggestions.

A Word About Teamwork

When Christ-followers begin to work as a team of equals, Heaven moves among them.

Announcements & Events
